BARELA ANNOUNCES THE LAUNCH OF CAMPAIGN WEBSITE

WWW.JONBARELA.COM

ALBUQUERQUE – Jon Barela today announced that his official campaign website is up and running. The web address is www.jonbarela.com.

Voters in New Mexico’s 1st Congressional District can log onto the website to learn more about Jon’s campaign for Congress. The campaign will regularly update the site and add new features on a regular basis.

Individuals can make a contribution on the site, sign up to volunteer, tell a friend about the campaign and contact Jon directly to share their thoughts and opinions on the tough issues facing New Mexicans. You can also access Jon on other social networking sites via the website.

“I am so excited to have the website up and running. I look forward to the opportunity to connect with voters one-on-one via my campaign website. The internet is an excellent way for voters to educate themselves about the issues and find out more about the candidates running for office,” Barela said. “I look forward to the months ahead on the campaign trail and discussing the important issues that are facing New Mexicans.”

Jon Barela is a small business owner in Albuquerque and has previously served as Chairman of the Albuquerque Hispano Chamber of Commerce and the New Mexico Workforce Development Board. Jon Barela is the only declared Republican candidate in the 1st Congressional District.
